VOLUME CVI.---NO 83. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life" which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such fears are largely warranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her.

Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change of life either in face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health with the health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or personal inability to enjoy life.

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' brought me safely through that difficult period, called 'change of life,'" writes Mrs. Mary Ensminger, of 344 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, became excited, flustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was fitful and for days I was unable to eat a fair meal. My aunt recommended me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made a great change for the better. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

You may be willing that somebody else shall say that their baby is "just as good" as yours, but you don't want that baby substituted for yours. Let dealers say what they like about other medicines being "just as good" but don't let them substitute anything for "Favorite Prescription." It is absolutely unequaled.

HAIR NATURALLY ABUNDANT.

When It Is Free of Dandruff, It Grows Luxuriantly.

Hair preparations and dandruff cures, as a rule, are sticky or irritating affairs that do no earthly good. Hair, when not diseased, grows naturally, luxuriantly. Dandruff is the cause of nine-tenths of all hair trouble, and dandruff is caused by a germ. The only way to cure dandruff is to kill the germ; and, so far, the only hair preparation that will positively destroy the germ is Newbro's Herpicide—absolutely harmless, free from grease, sediment, dye matter or dangerous drugs. It allays itching instantly; makes hair glossy and soft as silk. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength. If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much Pepsin and not enough Pancreatine.

Kodol

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size. Prepared at the Laboratory of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, U.S.A.

Immigration Records Broken.

If the present unusual flow of immigrants to the United States continues until July 1, all immigration records will be broken and the total number of immigrants admitted into the country will amount to more than 1,000,000 persons during the 12 months which will end June 30 next. The record up to the present time is that of the fiscal year 1903 during which 857,046 immigrants arrived in the United States. The total number of immigrants arriving in the United States during the seven months ending February 28 was 523,445. In February alone 67,117 immigrants were admitted, and the number which arrived during March was much greater.

The bulk of the immigrants come from Russia, Italy and Austria-Hungary. Emigration from Russia has been on the increase since 1902, but it took an upward bound in 1903. Local troubles started an exodus from that country several years ago, but the outbreak of the war with Japan produced a stampede, which is continuing. During the month of February, 1905, the number of immigrants from Russia was 11,998, or an increase of 80 per cent. over 1903. Since January 1, 1903, 433,165 have been admitted to the United States.

Henry W. Diedrich, American Consul at Bremen, Germany, says that more than 100,000 immigrants pass that city on their way to the United States every year, and the larger number of rejected cases indicate that the character of a number of the immigrants passing through Bremen last year fell below the usual standard. Thousands of other Russians of the lowest type were rushed over to England through the ports of Libau, Hamburg, Bremen and Rotterdam. Then everything was done to rid the city of London of these Russians by assisting them to America.

"These immigrants," Consul Diedrich says, "impress one as being more or less physically and mentally degenerate, unable and unwilling to do any but the cheapest kind of work and by overstocking the labor market they tend to reduce the standard of living of the American wage-worker and to increase the army of unemployed and discontented, and there seems but little probability that such as these will be lifted by our institutions and civilization."

Great as the Russian emigration has been in recent months, that of Austria-Hungary has far surpassed it, being 100,000 greater, or 539,417.

Peter Jackson Vanquished.

Philadelphia Jack O'Brien was awarded the decision last night by Referee Charley White over Young Peter Jackson, of Baltimore. After ten rounds of fighting before the Eureka Athletic Club, of the Monumental City, O'Brien proved himself too clever for the negro and had the advantage of every round except the fifth and sixth, when Jackson managed to land on Jack's face and struck and hurt the Philadelphian.

The agreement to fight clean breaks greatly handicapped Jackson, as Peter does his most effective work on infighting. Jackson tried his best to bore in, and vainly attempted to land a knockout punch, but O'Brein was far too wily and simply danced in and out, jabbing away at Jackson, and had the colored boy guessing by his clever footwork.

At the first tap of the bell, Jackson tried to force matters, but O'Brien stabbed his left to the face repeatedly, which soon stopped Peter's running. Jackson kept trying for the head with his right, but Jack kept out of harm's reach.

In the second and third rounds O'Brien played for Jackson's stomach and had but little difficulty in landing but his blows lacked the necessary force. Jackson was in prime form.

From this time on until the finish O'Brien outfought his dusky adversary at every stage of the game, and the decision awarding him the contest was favorably received by the 3,000 spectators.

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zichefoose, Adolph, W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1905.

THE FORTIETH anniversary of the closing scenes of the war between the States occurs this month, when the heroic Army of Northern Virginia, depleted in ranks, scantily clothed and poorly fed, obeyed the last command of their great leader and stacked arms before the superior numbers that confronted them. Two generations have appeared since those days, and considerable history has been made during the two-score years which have followed the fall of the curtain upon hopes entertained for four long years of the ultimate perpetuation of the principles for which so many laid down their lives upon their country's altar. The ranks of the survivors of the war have grown thinner with the years, and ever and anon some heroic soul who escaped the missiles of death upon the battlefield passes over the river. The transitions which have taken place in the country since the scenes at Appomatox have been many. Some pretend to be euthused at one movement or another which has changed the order of things, but most of those who cast their lot with the people of their own section at a critical period in the nation's history have no apologies to make for their action, and are as firmly convinced as ever that their cause was right, no matter what followed in the brain of might. They are, therefore, more disposed to remain as passive spectators than to follow in the wake of the enthusiasm and gush so common now. The juggernaut bearing the figurehead of trusts, tariffs, expansion and the thousand and one evils which now beset the body politic is now on the road, attracting the rustic and sage alike, and the thousands who are following and cheering seem to be as unmanageable as the horde who on a notable occasion cried for two hours "Great is Diana of the Ephesians." It seems that the distemper is not confined to any particular section, but has invaded localities heretofore not addicted to spasms of gush. Truly, times change and people change with them.

AS ANTICIPATED, the recent speech of Gov. Montague, in which his main points were the charges that Senator Martin was but a "department runner" and that he never spoke in the Senate, is being adversely criticised throughout the State and many of the Governor's staunchest friends admit that he made a mistake. In commenting upon the speech the Culpeper Exponent says:

Had the Governor confined himself to the issues before the people his speech would have doubtless received a better reception at the hands of the public. Instead he declared that Senator Martin was really no more than an executive clerk, who plied between the Capitol and the departments, with no more representative dignity than a street mender of old umbrellas. Thus are fair minded people apt to regard the Governor's speech. It would appear at the first glance of the speech, and at the last, that our Governor is not only afflicted with a red head, but with a big head as well. We are at a loss to understand what has been the source of such abnormal development. Could it have been the compliments heaped upon him for the knightly manner in which he sat his charger when marching down Pennsylvania avenue, on the 4th of March last, at a republican inauguration, to the tune of "Marching thro' Georgia?" Or could it be the recollection of his seat in the last national democratic convention as a delegate at large, by and with the grace and consent of the "executive clerk," Thomas S. Martin. The sum and substance of what the Governor did say at Spotsylvania C. H. might be fitly described in the following words; the quotation marks below are our own.

"Fellow citizens: You have never before had the opportunity of electing a real United States Senator, possessed with all the dignity and clean linen that should attach to such an exalted position. And should you fail to avail yourselves of the opportunity that now presents itself, it may be hundreds of years before you will have another such chance. If you elect me I will make good roads (out of what goodness only knows), and better schools from the same material. I will be an ornament to the United States Senate, looking, as usual, after my own interests, and not merely an executive clerk like Thomas S. Martin, who looks after the interest of his state and of his people."

OFFICIALS of the government are directing their energies toward an investigation of the formulas of the many patent medicines upon the market, it being alleged that some of these proprietary articles are likely to prove harmful to some people. Recently the authorities in New York have been collating statistics showing the terrible mortality among children. They attribute the deaths of the many infants to impure milk, and that of numbers who managed to emerge unscathed from babyhood to deleterious compounds sold under the name of candy which innocent children purchase. It is said that much of the cheap candy sold is not only spurious but dangerous. In every city small stores carry large stocks of products called candy. It is in many shapes to appeal to the sweet tooth of the child whose stomach is often diseased and its life menaced by eating the same. There are many questionable compounds hereabouts that should be pronounced safe by some competent person before children are allowed to eat them.

THE APPOINTMENT of colored men as representatives of the United States in foreign countries has proven a failure since its inception, about a quarter of a century ago, when Fred Douglas was sent to San Domingo. It will be remembered that the Dominicans failed to show him the deference he expected simply because he was one of their own race. This has proven the case on every occasion whenever a colored man has been selected as a minister. The unhappy condition of affairs in Haiti at this time is another illustration that negroes will not defer to negroes, no matter what nation they may represent, and Minister Powell for his super officiousness is declared persona non grata to the people of Haiti.

AND NOW it is said by some physicians that tape worms will cure consumption—but to the majority such a cure is more to be dreaded than the disease.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., April 8.

Whatever hopes might have been entertained at the State Department of the successful outcome of the peace negotiations instituted by President Roosevelt some time ago they have now, at least temporarily, been abandoned. Japan, it is understood on authority, made an indemnity from Russia a part of her initial demands before agreeing to the opening of direct peace negotiations. This proved unacceptable to the pride of Russia and at least for the present peace talk has been relegated to the background and the war will continue to be prosecuted with vigor.

Chairman Elkins, of the Senate committee on interstate commerce has prepared a long list of witnesses for hearing on railroad rate legislation which is to begin in this city April 17, and intends to go very thoroughly into the matter, using the Esch-Townsend bill introduced in the House last session as a basis. Most of the witnesses are said to be railroad presidents. Some of the Senators are objecting to a prolonged investigation, claiming that nearly all of the witnesses summoned have previously appeared before the committee and have pesented all the information on the subject that they have.

Chief Wilkie, of the secret service, this morning received a telegram announcing the conviction at Boston of Dr. Robert Thompson, alleged leader of the Wilson-Wiggins gang of counterfeiters who operated extensively throughout New England. Wilson and Wiggins were convicted a year ago and received five year sentences. On their arrest Dr. Thompson fled to Canada. He was reputed to be their financial backer. He did not return until after their conviction.

Senator Cullom called upon Secretary of War Taft this morning for the purpose of acquainting himself with the recent developments regarding Santo Domingo affairs. Senator Cullom expressed himself after his interview as being well satisfied with the situation and said that it was his opinion that the Senate when it met again would not hesitate to approve of what the President has done and would promptly ratify the pending treaty which puts the fiscal affairs of Santo Domingo in the hands of the United States.

In the opinion of leading members of the diplomatic corps here peace in the far Eastis still far off. According to the best information obtainable from their home governments, the war party is in absolute control in St. Petersburg.

It was officially announced today that when Colonel Geo. R. Colton goes to Santo Domingo to act as Custom Collector for the creditors of that republic. His instructions will provide that he is to act as the agent of President Morales and is in no sense an agent of the United States.

Blackburn's Estimate of Martin.

In a private letter to Capt. J. W. Foster, of Loudoun county, Senator J. C. S. Blackburn, of Kentucky, used the following language in reference to Sen. Thomas S. Martin;

"I am constrained to say that Martin's retirement from the Senate would be a positive and serious loss, both to the democratic party and to the country as well. I have grown to know him intimately, and have never met with a man in public life that I have learned to appreciate more, nor have I ever known a man in either House of Congress who in the same number of years has taken a more commanding position or wielded more influence. The estimate placed upon him by the democrats of the Senate is proven by his selection as a member of the steering committee, his work there, as well as on other committees of the Senate to which we both belong has given me exceptional opportunities for measuring the man. There is no man in the chamber whose counsel is more relied upon, or whose levelness of head is more appreciated. He is a tower of strength on the democratic side of the chamber."

Threw Herself in Front of Engine.

Miss Mary E. Munce, 24 years old, of Philadelphia, prominently known in social circles, deliberately committed suicide yesterday afternoon by hurling herself under the wheels of a market train engine, near Swarthmore station. The young woman was stopping at the home of her uncle, Attorney John F. Munce, in Swarthmore, having Thursday left a Philadelphia hospital, where she was convalescing from an attack of nervous prostration, due, it is said, to the recent death of her father, coupled with an extraordinary passion for music. Twice she wandered from home, but was brought back by a nurse. Yesterday she eluded the nurse and walked up the railroad track, entering the woods in the rear of Swarthmore College. Mrs. E. J. Durnall later saw Miss Munce suddenly emerge from the woods, run down a steep embankment, and threw herself beneath the wheels of a rapidly approaching train. It is believed Miss Munce was irresponsible and watched the tracks until she saw a train approaching, then yielding to mania, threw herself to death. The body was horribly crushed and death was instantaneous.

News of the Day.

The union paper hangers of Washington went on a strike for higher wages yesterday, demanding a raise of from $3.20 to $3.50 per day. Some of them refused to give up their jobs, and the employers hold that the force of the strike will be broken today by a full complement of non-union men.

E. W. Shriver, of Westminister, Md., who has been identified with the rural free delivery service since its inception in 1896, has been dismissed from the service for falsifying his accounts. It was stated at the Postoffice Department in Washington yesterday that a careful investigation of his vouchers showed that Shriver had on at least one occasion sworn that he was preser at at certain place inspecting proposed routes when he had not been present at all or certainly not for the length of time indicated in his vouchers.

M. P. CONFERENCE.

At the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, now in session in Salisbury, Md., Rev. S. A. Hobitzell, of Lisbon, yesterday requested that his name be transferred to the superannuated list. He has been in the couference 46 years. By a unanimous vote he was placed upon the retired list on full pay.

The committee on "our church home" reported the great results produced by an expenditure of only $738. The home is free from debt and pastors were urged to heartily co-operate for its maintenance.

Officers of the Church Extension Society were elected with J. M. Gill as president.

G. L. Wolf's request for a superannuate was referred.

The resolution fixing the time for the next meeting of the conference on the first Wednesday of April, 1906, was adopted.

The Baltimore City Church Extension Society, by its chairman, J. S. Bowers, reported the sale of Waverly Church, subject to the indorsement of this conference. This was referred to the committee on church extension.

The conference gave way at this point to a meeting of the Superannuated Fund Society, which elected officers with Dr F. T. Little president. Immediately after a meeting of the Mutual Relief Society was held, which elected officers with Dr. Little president. A recommendation that an assessment of $4,000 for the church extension and $4,500 for superannuates be levied was adopted.

Reunion of Army of the Potomac.

Preparations are under way to make the annual reunion of the society of the Army of the Potomac, which is to be held on the battlefield of Manassas May 10 and 11, the largest in the history of the society. Col. George H. Patrick recently visited Manassas with the president of the society, Gen. Horatio C. King, and Capt. John Tregaskis, of Brooklyn, N. Y., for the purpose of making arrangements for the reunion. He says 400 members will attend from Washington, and about 250 from other places.

Judge Charles E. Nicol is chairman of the committee of fifteen for the reunion arrangements. He has general supervision of the local arrangements, and committees have been appointed at Manassas with chairmen as follows: Executive, George C. Round; music, Daniel H. Prescott; hall, Walter Shannon; transportation, A. O. Portuer; refreshments, H. M. Clarkson, and decorations, C. Maurice Hopkins. A reception committee of nearly 100 prominent citizens has been selected, with Judge Charles E. Nicol as chairman.

The exercises May 10 will be held at Manassas Courthouse, and May 11 there will be open-air exercises on the battlefield of Manassas, which will be followed by a luncheon.

Meetings of the several corps societies of the society of the Army of the Potomac will be held in the different rooms of the courthouse on the morning of May 10, and the general society will meet at 11 a. m. In the afternoon of that day an address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hills, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The address of welcome on the part of the State will be delivered by the Governor, or by one of the State officials, and the address for the local citizens by Judge Charles E. Nicol.

The Society of the Army of the Potomac has over 2,000 members.

Died From Her Wounds.

Elements of mystery recalling the stories of "Jack the Ripper," who terrorized the Whitechapel district of London years ago, lend sensation to the stabbing yesterday in a Thirteenth street New York hotel of a young woman, an account of which was published in yesterday's Gazette. She died in a hospital a few hours after the stabbing. A patron of the hotel, whom the police put under arrest, although admitting he was in the woman's company a short time before she was injured, declared he did not know how she received the wound that resulted in her death. The woman, whose name was Mamie Wilson, was stabbed in the abdomen. The wound was made by a very long knife, for which the police are unable to account, and which the man under arrest protests did not belong to him. The character of the cut was similar to that made on the victims of the London Jack the Ripper. The man under arrest is James Boyne, a club steward. He told the police he was with the woman Thursday night, but said that she had left him, and he did not know how she was stabbed. When he was arrested it was found that seven of Boyne's teeth had been knocked out and that one of his eyes had been blackened by a blow.

Boyne was held in the Tombs police court without bail today. He protested his innocence, but his attorney says he is not mentally responsible. The young woman stabbed to death is believed to have been Mrs. William Smith, formerly Lucy Eston, of Trenton, N. J.

A phenomenal snowstorm visited the Northern neck section of Virginia yesterday afternoon and was accompanied by violent thunder and lightning. The snow did not fall in flakes, but in large lumps that covered the ground, though the storm lasted only 20 minutes.

A plan prepared by the committee on civic progress, contemplating a great enlargement of the city by the annexation of territory, was defeated last night by the Richmond city council, which, by a vote of 22 to 8, adopted a measure slightly extending the corporate limits.

An unknown incendiary set fire to the big barn, dwelling and smokehouse on the farm of Mr. Samuel Ruble on Hunting Ridge, Frederick county, Wednesday night, causing a loss of $2,500, with insurance of $600. The fire spread to the woods, and a fierce mountain fire was started.

The State corporation commission will hear argument in Richmond April 11 on the question of its power to fix railway traffic rates. The claim is made by the railroads that under the charters of the railroads the State cannot fix their rates. The case is designed to test the powers of the commission.

State Chairman J. Taylor Ellyson says that a meeting of the democratic committee would be called next month, on a date to be fixed later, to arrange for the meeting of the central committee. This latter will set a date for the State primary and fix the assessment of candidates.

The annual banquet of the chamber of commerce was held at Newport News last night. Among those who responded to toasts were Gov. A. J. Montague, Senator Thomas S. Martin, Mayor S. R. Buxton, and C. Brooks Johnston, of Norfolk. The members of the Minnesota party who were at Newport News are here to attend the launching of the battleship Minnesota today were in attendance.

At Pulaski yesterday Cloyd Hale, colored, was indicted for murder, tried, convicted and sentenced to death, the proceedings lasting less than an hour. Hale killed John Hart, white, last Saturday night and made his escape. He was captured the following night, and returned to Pulaski. During the trial Hale manifested indifference, but after the death sentence he fainted and was carried from the room. May 12 was fixed as the day for the execution.

Schoolgirl Commits Suicide.

Eva Lake, a beautiful 16-year-old schoolgirl, was found dead in her room in her mother's home in the borough of Queens, New York, yesterday, afternoon. There was a bullet hole in her head and a new revolver, with one chamber empty, lay in her lap. The girl had been ill and despondent, but her illness was not severe enough to prevent her from keeping up with her studies. She started for school as usual yesterday, but turned back when she was out of sight of the house and returned by way of a rear door without being seen by any member of the family. One of her schoolmates called at the house yesterday afternoon to inquire about her. This was the first intimation Mrs. Lake had that her daughter had not been to school. She went to the girl's room and found her dead, sitting in a chair. The Lakes are wealthy and live in a handsome home. There was no revolver in the house and the members of the family are at a loss to account for her possession of the weapon with which she killed herself.

Wild Man on Rampage.

A wild man of hideous appearance, ragged garments, emaciated features and lacerated body, has been terrorizing the residents of the southern and southwestern portions of the Chickasaw reservation, Indian Territory, for the last two weeks. On several occasions he has assaulted women and children and injured men who sought to capture him. He invariably makes his escape and renews his operations in some other locality.

Two deputy United States marshals and a posse of citizens recently came in touch with him in a heavy thicket, but he made good his escape. All subsequent efforts at capture have been futile.

NAVAL BATTLE IMMINENT.

Apmiral Rodjestvensky's Fleet Heard From—Admiral Togo Prepared to Meet the Russian Ships.

Penang, Straits Settlement, off the Malay Peninsula, April 8.—The greatest excitement prevails here, as it is believed that a naval battle between the Japanese and Russian fleets is impending. The reports of vessels which have arrived here lately showing that the fleets are approaching, are responsible for this belief. News of the movements of the fleets is awaited with the greatest anxiety. The steamer Kumsang, which has just arrived, reports sighting twelve warships, apparently a Japanese scouting squadron, steaming ahead off Singapore (off the southernmost point of the Malay peninsula). Two other steamers report sighting a large Russian fleet in the straits of Malacca, and steaming toward Singapore. Twenty-five of the vessels were transports. The impression prevails that it is only a matter of a few hours until the two fleets will meet and a naval battle which may mean the ending of the war will then be fought.

Singapore, April 8.—Admiral Rodjestvensky's fleet was sighted heasing apparently for Durian straits. Durian straits lie southeast of Malacca straits and are between the islands of Sumatra and Lingen.

Hong Kong, April 8.—Following the reported appearance of thirty-one warships between Penang and Singapore, the British China squadron is preparing to go to sea. The Sutlej starts today for Singapore and it will be followed by the Ocean and another cruiser.

Singapore, April 8, 3 p. m.—The Russian fleet has just passed the harbor and is now steaming northeast. This indicates that Admiral Rodjestvensky is entering the China sea by way of the Singapore straits instead of the Durian straits.

London, April 8.—A private telegram from Singapore says the Russian squadron numbers thirty-five vessels. It is believed that Admiral Rodjestvensky is making for Saigon, the capital of French Cochin China.

London, April 8.—From the dispatches which have been received in the last twelve hours, indicating that the Japanese and Russian fleets are really coming together, it is regarded as almost certain that another great naval battle will be fought within the next few hours. That the Russian fleet has advanced through the straits of Malacca, heading apparently for the China sea, is regarded as an indication that Admiral Rodjestvensky has at last decided so meet the enemy in the battle which the Czar regards as offering the only possibility of Russia regaining any semblance of her former prestige. The China sea will probably be the scene of the conflict if Rodjestvensky adheres to his apparent intention of making for Saigon, the capital of French Cochin China.

The Russian fleet has been sighted at Singapore, one of the Straits Settlements just south of the Malay peninsula. There are several openings through which the Russian fleet may pass from the straits of Malacca, and it is believed that Admiral Togo is closely watching all of these passages. Little has been heard of Togo's fleet in the last few weeks. It is understood, however, that the Japanese vessels have been cruising in the neighborhood of Singapore and the Linga archipelago. On March 16 vessels reported at Singapore sighting twenty-two Japanese warships in that neighborhood.

By means of his scout ships, it is believed the Japanese will be able to keep a close watch on all the passages by which the Russian fleet might pass from the Indian Ocean, which Rojestvensky has traversed coming from Madagascar, near which the Russian vessels cruised for so many weeks, into the China sea. The vessels have been cruising with lights out at night and apparently were ready to meet the Russians at any moment.

From the "lay of the land," it seems apparent that Admiral Togo will have something of an advantage in position. The straits of Malacca separate the large island of Sumatra from the Malay peninsula on the west and southwest. Singapore and Bingtang and other islands of the Rhio archipelago lie south of the Malay peninsula and separated from it by the straits of Singapore. These islands are to the east of Sumatra. Farther southeast is the Linga archipelago, which is also east of Sumatra and separated from the latter by the Durian straits.

It is believed by the naval experts that Admiral Togo has intentionally allowed Rodjestvensky to pass through the straits of Malacca unmolested, fearing that if a naval battle occurred there the narrowness of the straits would interfere with the manoeuvres of his squadron.

By waiting until the Russians pass into the China sea, more sea room will be secured, and the possibility of an accident by which the outcome of the battle might be changed, would be avoided in a great measure.

It is thought that Togo plans to wait until Rodjestvensky rounds Bintang or the point of the Malay peninsula, or the islands of the Linga archipelago, in case the Russian commander chooses the southernmost course before making the attack. The Japanese apparently intend then to press the Russians close to the eastern coast of the Malay peninsula, duplicating the plan followed by the American fleet in the naval battle of Santiago during the Spanish-American war, when Cervera was kept close to the Cuban coast. It will make little difference by which of the passages Rodjestvensky attempts to enter the China sea. In fact, the Japanese squadron is strong enough to defeat its enemy. The fact that the fight will in all probability be fought close to land, will probably mean that one or the other of the fleets will be annihilated, and that the conflict will be decisive. The dispatches are conflicting as to which passage Rodjestvensky intends to make his exit Early messages said the Russian fleet was heading for the Durian straits. Later dispatches say that the fleet has passed the harbor of Singapore, and is heading northeast. This would indicate that Rodjestvensky intended using the Singapore straits. This would bring his vessels into the China sea at the southermost point of the Malay peninsula, and would give the opportunity for Togo to put into effect his plan of pressing the Russian vessels close to the coast.

The strength of the opposing fleets is not definitely known. The dispatches place Rodjestvensky's fleet at between thirty and forty vessels of which some at least are colliers.

The fleet is largely made up of the remnants of the Russian navy left after the former disastrous naval battles. Previous accounts of the fleet have indicated that the vessels were not in the best of condition and were not prepared for a hard battle. A part of the Russian fleet is also made up of small craft, such as torpedo boats and destroyers.

The best vessels in the Japanese navy are now under Admiral Togo. In reports from Singapore, dated March 16th, it was stated that his fleet numbered 22 vessels, all good-sized warships. While the numerical advantage may be with Rodjestvensky, there is little doubt that the greater part of the Japanese vessels are better prepared for a fight, and in much better condition.

Admiral Togo will have the advantage that his vessels can be arranged in order of battle near any of the passages if sufficient warning is given of which one the Russian vessels are using. It is believed that his scouts can furnish this information.

Coming out of the straits of Malacca Rodjestvensky may pass either through the strait of Singapore or he may go farther south, rounding the Lingan archipelago.

By the latter route more sea room will be secured.

If Togo's fleet is on the watch, it might be difficult for the Russian commander to arrange an effective line of battle before engaging the enemy.

Successful Launch.

Newport News, Va., April 8.—The first class battleship Minnesota was launched here today, being christened by Miss Rose Marie Schaller, daughter of State Senator Albert Schaller, of Hastings, Minn. The launching was eminently successful, notwithstanding the fact that the vessel is over sixty per cent. completed, and the hull weighed over 10,000 tons when it glided down the ways. Miss Schaller was accompanied by Miss Lillian MacMillan and Miss Constance Day, both of Minneapolis, as maids of honor. Secretary Frank Day represented Governor Johnson, who was unable to attend. A large crowd witnessed the launching, a number of excursions from all over the State being run for the occasion. Many officers of the navy and army were present.

The Minnesota when completed will be one of the most powerful battleships afloat. She will have a displacement of 16,000 tons and a speed of 18 knots, thus combining strength with speed. The hull of the Minnesota will be of steel throughout and will be fitted with docking and bilge keels. She will be armed with four 12-inch breech-loading rifles; eight 8-inches breech-loading rifles and twelve 7-inch breech-loading rifles. Her secondary battery will consist of twenty 3-inch, 14-pounder, rapid fire guns; twelve 3-pounder semi-automatic guns, two 1-pounder semi-automatic guns; two 3-inch field pieces; two machine guns and six automatic guns of small caliber.

The hull of the Minnesota will be protected at the water line by a complete belt of armor 9 feet 3 inches wide, having a uniform thickness of 9 inches for about 295 feet amidships, forward and aft of which points the thickness is gradually decreased to 4 inches at the stem and stern. The remainder of the ship will be well protected by armor. There will be a complete protective deck extending from stem to stern made of nickel steel.

The Earthquake in East India.

Lahore, British India, April 8.—The first part of the relief expedition sent out to the district where the greatest havoc was wrought by the earthquake has reached Dharmsala. Their reports show that they found an awful scene of destruction. It is not believed that any of the persons buried by the ruins are alive. Six hundred pioneers and two companies of the engineers have been ordered to Dharmsala to rescue the dead. It is now believed that the horrors at Dharmsala have been repeated at Kangra.

As a result of the earthquake the Vice Regal lodge has been declared to be unsafe and Lady Curzon and her children, have moved to houses within the grounds.

Trouble Anticipated in Chicago.

Chicago, April 8.—Extraordinary precautions were taken this morning by the police to prevent rioting by the striking teamsters of Montgomery, Ward & Co. The greater fury of the strike is reserved for Monday, when union officials may extend the ban to other employers and to express companies. That is the day now set for general strike activity, and by coincidence it is the day of the inauguration of Judge Dunne, as Mayor. In a telegram from New York Mayor elect Dunne defines his proposed "strike policy," as follows. "I will preserve the peace from inception of any strike, but will exhaust every effort to bring about arbitration between employer and employees, while I am mayor".

Three Persons Drowned.

New York, April 8.—By the capsizing of the tug Greenville, belonging to the Morris & Cummings Dredging Company, in the North River off Bloomfield street, today, three persons were drowned. They are: Cristopher Tull, engineer, No. 236 Grove street, Jersey City; Nelson Cropper, a deck hand, and Hans Olsen, a cook. The remainder of the crew were rescued. The Greenville attempted to make a landing alongside of a scow which the tug had been shifting and turned turtle. The drowned men were in the hold and could not escape.

The Nan Patterson Case.

New York, April 8.—Nan Patterson, the Floradora actress, will be brought before a jury for the third time on Monday for the killing of her lover, Caesar Young, the bookmaker, who was shot in a cab on June 4th last. Miss Patterson is confident of the outcome of the trial and shows little evidence of her year's incarceration in the Tombs. Abraham Levy, assisted by his law partner, Henry Unger, and Daniel O'Reilly will represent her at the trial. Assistant District Attorney Rand will again prosecute Miss Patterson.

Wholesale Arrests.

Warsaw, April 8.—The police have begun making indiscriminate arrests of persons belonging to political societies, and putting an end to agitation that has been going on. All the prisons and the citadel are filled with prisoners. There are persistent rumors that the authorities have hanged many prisoners, after farcical trials. The socialists have issued a proclamation calling on their followers to revenge the action of the authorities.

New Paper in Richmond.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., April 8.—A new afternoon paper, the "Evening Journal," is to be established here. All arrangements have been made to start the paper in 30 days. A. R. Holderby, jr., and P. D. Perkins, now with Times-Dispatch is to be the business manager and city editor respectively. The paper will be democratic in politics though its editorial policy will be temporate. This forbodes a heavy fight for business and news in the afternoon field.

Terrible Disaster.

Madrid, April, 8.—A large reservoir which was in course of construction on the outskirts of this city collapsed today. So far 180 dead and wounded workmen have been taken out of the ruins. The Prince of Australia, the Minister of War, the Governor of Madrid and a representative of the king, have gone to the scene of the work of rescue. Troops have also been sent to the spot to help the sufferers and assist in the work of recovering the dead. It is now feared the number of dead and injured will reach 400. Fifty bodies have been taken out of the ruins.

The Eastern War.

St. Petersburg, April 8.—Telegrams received at the War Office from Manchuria report a Japanese movement against the Russian left. It is expected that the Japanese will shortly occupy Kirin, and the inhabitants of that place, have fled.

Killed in Railroad Accident.

St. Petersburg, April 8.—The last reports in regard to the collision of the two military trains at a station in Manchuria, west of Harbin, places the number of casualties at eight killed and twenty-eight injured.

The Baltic Squadron.

Mrs. Dulles Gets Necklace.

By a decision of the United States Court of Appeals in New York, handed down yesterday Mrs. L. Harrison Dulles, wife of a wealthy Philadelphian, wins the famous suit over the seizure of her $26,000 pearl necklace by a Treasury agent in June, 1902.

In two decisions, one by Judge Lacombe and the other by Judge Wallace, it is declared that when Mrs. Dulles declared "wearing apparel of a value unknown" she included all the jewelry she had, and that William H. Theobald, the Treasury agent in question, had no "probable cause for seizure" and therefore was entirely at fault. Twice has Mrs. Dulles won in the Appeal Court and once only, in the first trial, has the government won. Theobald swore that Mrs. Dulles on landing after a visit to Europe in 1901 had the necklace concealed in her stocking. This she denied.

The New Ferry.

The board of directors of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company held a special meeting in Washington Thursday evening, to consider the new ferry line matters.

The report of the legal representative of the company that there was no legal impediment to the purchase of the property of the old Washington Steamboat Company wanted by the Norfolk and Washington was received, and it was unanimously determined to acquire the property, and within the next day or two the formal transfer of the property from Mr. W. B. Hibbs will be made.

The question as to the operation of the ferry was again discussed.

It was determined to make it a part of the Norfolk and Washington company, the officers of that company to have control of it, under management of Mr. John Callahan.

Plans will be prepared at once for the new slips and terminals at each end and the work on them started. Owing to the dilapidated condition of the ferry slips, both in Washington and at Alexandria, it will be necessary to entirely rebuild both terminals. This work will be pushed as rapidly as can be done, and by the time the slips are ready, which will be in about six weeks or two months, Mr. Clalahan states he will have secured a double-end ferry steamer for temporary service between this city and Alexandria, while the two new steel boats are being constructed. The order for these boats will be placed at once, and the work on them expedited.

The proposed new ferry houses will be ornamental buildings, constructed of steel with slag roofs, in order to have them fire-proof, and will be modern in all their fittings. They will be so arranged that the passenger entrance to the boats will be entirely separated from the wagon way on the steamers, and, as has been stated, the slip at the Washington end will lead directly out upon the street.

The new building is to have two entrances—one leading to the ferry steamers and the other to the pier proper, which will be used for excursions.

The hull of the old steamer Columbia, which is lying at the Washington slip, will not be utilized, but will be sold to the highest bidder, and the old steamer George Washington, lying at this place, will, it is stated, be taken away by her New York owners.

Died From Their Injuries.

George W. Malcolm, the deputy sheriff of Fairfax county, who was shot in the abdomen while trying to arrest Joseph Lanto, an Italian, at Lorton, on Thursday afternoon, died last night at the Emergency Hospital in Washington, where he had been taken for treatment. Lanto, who shot himself yesterday while being pursued by a sheriff's posse, and was brought to the Emergency Hospital last evening, died an hour after Malcolm.

The Italian, who was employed by W. H. Quigg & Co., railroad contractors, is alleged to have attempted to assault some little school girls.

Yesterday morning an armed posse went on a hunt for Lanto. The latter, when he ascertained that the posse was after him, took refuge in a freight car at Lorton station, and fought the entire party until he received a probably fatal pistol wound in his head. Whether the wound which felled him was inflicted by himself or by his pursuers is not known.

Armed with two pistols and a bountiful supply of ammunition, the man successfully defied the posse, until one of the citizens managed to surprise him from the rear. The Italian was then seen to put one of the pistols to his head, either to kill himself or shoot over his back at his assailant. With the discharge of his weapon he fell, but whether the ball came from the posse is uncertain.

Latono spent the night prowling near the little station and shouting defiance at those within hearing. Early yesterday morning Deputy Sheriff James Haislip arrived on the scene and organized a posse. The party, after forcing the Italian to cover, was kept at bay until about 10 o'clock.

Malcomb taught the Lorton Valley School. On Thursday he was informed that an Italian had loitered about the schoolhouse insulting some of the girl students. A warrant for the man's arrest was sworn out, and Malcomb was deputized to take him. With two unarmed companions he sought the Italian, who at once opened fire, striking the teacher on the hand and shattering his revolver, but not before Malcomb had fired twice without effect. Malcomb, wounded, then turned and ran. He was twenty-four years old and well known in Fairfax county.

The Fairfax county authorities fear trouble with the hundred of Italians employed on the railroad near Lorton.

Fire in Washington.

Fire about 6 o'clock this morning completly gutted Lanahan's Apartment House at 2nd and H streets, Washington, near the government printing office, entailing a loss of between $2,000 and $3,000. It is supposed that the fire started in the cellar of the building beneath Lanahan's plumbing shop, where gasoline and other inflamable materials were stored. Owing to the materials used in the construction of the apartment house, it looked as though the efforts of the firemen would prove futile in confining the fire to the building. Just across the narrow street is a row of two story wooden houses which stretch all the way to the old government printing office, and owing to the high wind this morning it looked for a time, as though the row would be doomed. An extra alarm was turned in, however, and after more engines responded, the blaze was confined to the burning building. The inmates of the apartment house escaped in their night clothes, and so far as is known there were no accidents.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

Mr. H. C. Griffith and Constable Wm. Cline were cited to appear before Justice May this morning at the instance of Courtney Wilson, colored, who alleged that the defendants defaced his property in forcibly entering his house a week or two ago and removing therefrom a sewing machine. The incident, it will be remembered, was aired in the Police Court and Wilson and his daughter were fined for assault on the constable. When the damage case came up this morning Wilson was represented by Mr. R. L. Moncure and Messrs. Griffith and Cline by Mr. H. B. Caton. A large number of witnesses were examined, and attempts made on the part of the court to compromise the matter. Justice May finally summed up the case and gave judgment for the plaintiff. Later a compromise was effected between the parties involved.

Variety of Weather.

Yesterday closed with a variety of weather. A heavy black cloud gathered in the western heavens as the day was waning, from which quarter rumbling thunder was heard. Later rain began to fall, which was followed by a flurry of snow and also by some hail. The heavens, however, soon became clear, and the temperature took a sudden drop. The air was decidedly chilly throughout the night, and this morning frost could be seen. Thin ice also formed. The weather today has been clear and crisp.

France's Alleged Plot.

The investigations of the secret police of Paris have not yet determined whether the arms and uniforms recently seized in the suburbs of Paris were intended for a chimerical African expedition or a seditious movement against the government.

Statsmentes made by Deputy Rabier tend to show the existence of a plot. M. Rabier recently received letters warning him that a number of determined men were planning a surprise movement. He at first dismissed the letters, but he recently decided to submit them to Minister of the Interior Etienne, who turned them over to the police. One of the letters says a prominent general was at the head of the movement, which included a number of Deputies and one former Cabinet Minister. According to this letter the necessary arms, uniforms and equipments were ready and recruitment was going on among the retired colonial troops. However, the plot, if it actually existed, appears to have been nipped in the bud by the activity of the police.

A report was circulated by a minor news agency yesterday that General De Negrier is under surveillance and that former War Minister Cavaignac has been summoned before the authorities in connection with the investigation into the military plot. It is discredited, however, owing to the fact that both the General and M. Cavaignac are abroad. The same agency published a rumor that it was part of the conspirators' plan to imprison President Loubet in a house situated in the Bois de Boulogne.

Philippine Customs.

Another effort is to be made by the War Department to save the government the $7,000,000 which the Supreme Court has decided was illegally collected as customs duties in the Philippines prior to action of Congress upon the Philippine tariff.

These duties were collected under the general authority given the Philippines Commission by presidential order. In 1902 Congress ratified all that had been done by the President. It has been held by the Supreme Court that the imposition of customs duties was not authorized by the President's order, and therefore could not have been made legal by the act of Congress. The Court has therefore directed that the money be refunded to the persons from whom it was collector.

Secretary Taft and the Attorney General have decided to ask the Court for a hearing. They believe that further consideration will convince the Court that the action was legal in all respects.
